

Letter of Recommendation

To whom it may concern,

It is my pleasure to write to you to recommend Maria Cacciatore as a fashion professional for your company.

I am a Fashion Design professor and mentor at Istituto Marangoni Miami and Miami International University, and for over 10 years I have been involved in the fashion industry not only as an educator, but also as an editor and a consultant. Maria was my student before she got her bachelor's degree from Istituto Marangoni Miami, and of all the students I've had the opportunity to work with, Maria is among the most intellectually enthusiastic.

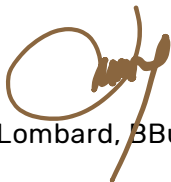

As a student, Maria always possessed the highest work ethics, a curious mind and was eager to learn. During her time in my classes, she worked on various projects where she showed an impressive level of research and offered brilliant insight and development that resulted in breathtaking design collections. Her grades on every work delivered were consistently outstanding.

I've always put a premium on initiative and hard work among my students and Maria never failed to deliver. Her collaboration and leadership skills were always impressive, and her capstone project, for which I served as a mentor, won glowing reviews from both her peers and other professors.

Maria is intelligent, hardworking and has a great passion for fashion. I am confident without reservation that she would be an excellent fit for your company. As a tirelessly creative and passionate individual, Maria will be a productive addition to your organization.

Feel free to contact me if you have any questions or would like me to further elaborate on Maria's talents and achievements.

I appreciate your time and consideration. Sincerely,

Mena Lombard, BBusSci, MsC
